

COMPREHENSIVE MANAGEMENT OF AGING IN HIV

NOVEMBER 21ST & 22TH 2019

MUSEO DE ARTE MODERNO
DE BUENOS AIRES

FIGHT AIDS
FOUNDATION

FUNDACIÓN
HUÉSPED
PREVENCIÓN-CIENCIA-DERECHOS

THURSDAY 21ST NOVEMBER

12:00 – 14:00	REGISTRATION
14:00 – 14:10	WELCOME	Bonaventura Clotet & Pedro Cahn
FROM THE BASIC SCIENCE		Chair: Omar Sued
14:10 - 16:00	Accelerated immune senescence and inflammaging	Alan Landay
	Dissecting Immune Discordant Responders. Age as a risk factor	Esper Kallas
	DNA Repair. Senescence and aging	Eugènia Negredo
	The microbiome in HIV, inflammation and aging	Irini Sereti
OVERALL DISCUSSION
16:00 – 16:20	COFFEE BREAK
TO THE TISSUES AND ORGANS		Chair: Cécile Tremblay
16:20 - 17:50	Non-alcoholic fatty liver disease (NASH)	Esteban Gonzalez Ballerga
	Age-associated cardiovascular disease	Ricardo Rey
	Age-associated neoplasms	Valeria Fink
OVERALL DISCUSSION
THE PATIENT AND THE REAL LIFE		Chair: Alan Landay
17:50 - 18:50	Switching antiretroviral therapy to safer strategies based on integrase inhibitors	Pedro Cahn
	The Top 5 publications on Aging and HIV	Cécile Tremblay
18:50 - 19:50	The voice of the patient	Estela Carrizo, Edgardo Corts & Luis Adrian Quiroz
20:00	WELCOME COCKTAIL

FRIDAY 22ND NOVEMBER

08:30 - 09:00	BREAKFAST
COHORT STUDIES		Chair: Eugènia Negredo
9:00 - 10:30	How important is a cohort as a source of evidence-based medicine? The statisticians' view	Santiago Perez Lloret
	Aging with HIV in Latin America: data from the CCASANet Cohort	Gabriela Carriquiry
OVERALL DISCUSSION
10:30 - 11:00	COFFEE BREAK
THE PATIENT AND THE REAL LIFE		Chair: Pedro Cahn
11:00 - 12:30	Interactive clinical cases discussion	Mercedes Cabrini Patricia Patterson Bonaventura Clotet Pedro Cahn
12:30 - 13:30	LUNCH
INDIVIDUALIZED AND MULTIDISCIPLINARY PATIENT CARE		Chair: Bonaventura Clotet
13:30 - 15:00	Selecting 1st line therapy for the elderly	Omar Sued
	How to manage a patient with multimorbidity and polypharmacy?	Waldo Belloso
	How to manage neurocognitive impairment?	Jorge Zirulnik
OVERALL DISCUSSION
15:00 - 15:30	MIGRATORY FLOWS AROUND THE WORLD OSCAR CAMPS
15:30 - 15:40	CLOSING	Pedro Cahn & Bonaventura Clotet

SPEAKERS

Waldo Horacio Belloso (Argentina), Graduated cum laude as Physician and Specialist in Infectious Diseases and Clinical Pharmacology of Buenos Aires University. He is serving as a Professor of Pharmacology at Hospital Italiano School of Medicine of Buenos Aires. Chair, Operative Steering Committee, INSIGHT Research Network, Deputy Administrator, National Administration of Drugs, Food and Medical Technology in Argentina.

Mercedes Cabrini (Argentina), Infectologist working at Fernández Hospital in Buenos Aires. She teaches Immunology and Infectology at the Faculty of Medicine of the University of Buenos Aires.

Pedro Cahn (Argentina), Scientific Director of Fundación Huésped. Former President of the International AIDS Society (IAS) and former Chief and current Consultant of the Infectiology Division of the Buenos Aires Fernández Hospital in Buenos Aires. Professor of the Department of Medicine, Infectious Orientation of the Faculty of Medicine at Buenos Aires University. Former advisor of the Pan American Health Organization (PAHO), the World Health Organization (WHO) and UNAIDS.

Oscar Camps (Spain), Entrepreneur in the maritime sector. He founded Open Arms to help people trying to cross the Aegean Sea in precarious conditions. The NGO has managed to rescue around 60,000 people from death. He was recognized numerous times for his work and the protection of human rights around the world.

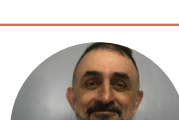

Gabriela Carriquiry (Perú), Medical and Biologist specialist on Infectious and Tropical Diseases Control with more than 10 years of experience in HIV/AIDS, HHV-8 and Tuberculosis research. Associate researcher of the Alexander Von Humboldt Institute of Tropical Medicine that belongs to the Caribbean Epidemiological Network on Central and South America and the International Network for HIV Epidemiological Research.

Estela Carrizo (Argentina), HIV/AIDS patients, sexual minorities and drug users human rights activist. Representative of the Argentina Network People with HIV/AIDS, viral hepatitis, sexual and reproductive health and recreational, medicinal and spiritual.

Edgardo Corts (Argentina), Human Rights Proponent for people with HIV. Main advisor in Mayores en la Diversidad and Frente de Personas Mayores.

Bonaventura Clotet (Spain), Head of the Infectious Diseases Department of the Germans Trial in Pujol Hospital University, Director of the Retrovirology Laboratory IrsiCaixa Foundation and President of the Fight AIDS Foundation. He is member of Eurosida Committee and is on the editorial board of AIDS Journal, HIV Medicine, Expert Review of Clinical Immunology, Future HIV Therapy and Journal of the International Association of Physicians in AIDS Care.

Valeria Fink (Argentina), She obtained her medical degree at Buenos Aires University. She is the coordinator of the clinical research unit at Fundación Huésped. She is a member of the AIDS and sexual transmitted diseases working group of the Argentine Society of Infectious Diseases and an associate Chair for Latin America International Sites of the AIDS Malignancy Consortium.

Esteban González Ballerga (Argentina), Senior physician doctor of the hepatology section and Head of Gastroenterology offices at José de San Martín Hospital. He is also working as a professor of gastroenterology and hepatology at Buenos Aires University.

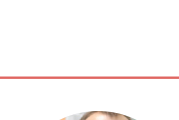

Esper Kallas (Brazil), Infectious Diseases Specialist and professor at the Parasitic and Infectious Diseases at University of Sao Paulo, Brazil. He coordinates a Clinical Site and conducts the STEP and iPREx trials. He conducts projects on HIV immunopathogenesis and Dengue fever pathogenesis, diagnosis, cellular immune responses, viral characterization and vaccine development. He is also leading a team to study Yellow Fever pathogenesis and prognostic factors.

Alan Landay (USA), Professor and Chairman of the Department of Immunology/Microbiology at Rush University Medical Center in Chicago. He serves on the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation Global Health Care Technologies Committee. Member of the Office of AIDS Research HIV and Aging Committee. He serves on NIH, AmFar, Glazer Pediatric AIDS Foundation.

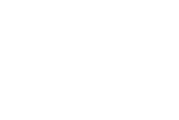

Mar Lucas (Argentina), Director of Programs of Fundación Huésped. She holds a postgraduate degree in Gestalt from AGBA, Argentina, a Diploma in Social Pedagogy and Education Theory and a Master's Degree in Family and Community Mediation from FUE-UNED, Spain, and is a Specialist in Childhood and Development from IFEJANT, Peru. She has worked in different non-governmental organizations in Spain, Bolivia and Argentina.

Eugènia Negredo (Spain), Specialist in Internal Medicine at the Sant Pau Hospital in Barcelona. She graduated from medical careers at the Barcelona University. She has been working in the HIV Unit of the Germans Trias i Pujol Hospital in Barcelona where she is leading the research group focused on epidemiology, pathogenesis and treatment of different complications related to HIV and antiretrovirals. She is also an associate professor at Barcelona and Vic Universities.

Patricia Patterson (Argentina), Medical Specialist in Infectious Diseases. She is a clinical trial researcher at Fundación Huésped. She is a quality control advisor for different research projects and has been dedicated to the care of people with HIV at Fernández Hospital in Buenos Aires. She is a fellow member of the International AIDS Society (IAS) and the Argentine Infectious Society (SADI).

Santiago Perez Lloret (Argentina), Pharmacoepidemiology consultant. He is a Deputy Researcher at CONICET and a Professor of Epidemiology and Demography at the Faculty of Medicine of the Catholic University of Argentina. He is a member of the International Parkinson's Disease and Movement Disorders Society.

Luis Adrián Quiroz (Mexico), He works for comprehensive care, treatment and health, in defense and promotion of Human Rights, promoting the GIPA. He is coordinator of a social security network for people with HIV and is a member of the REDLA Coordinating Board, the network of people living with HIV in Latin America.

Ricardo Rey (Argentina), Head of the Lipids and Early Detection of Atherosclerosis of the Cardiovascular Institute of Buenos Aires. He holds a Master in Economics and Health Management from the ISALUD University in Argentina. He is a Fellow of the American College of Cardiology, a Permanent Member of the Argentine Society of Cardiology and the Argentine Cardiology Foundation's VP.

Irini Sereti (USA), She graduated at the National University of Athens in Greece. Currently she is serving as Senior Clinical Investigator of the Laboratory of Immunoregulation. She received the Clinical Center award for participation in the Ebola response team, the Susan Pearlman award for excellence in academic performance in Northwestern University and an State Scholarships from Ministry of Education in Athens.

Omar Sued (Argentina), Director of Clinical Research of Fundación Huésped. He obtained his degree from the University of Córdoba and specialized in Internal Medicine and University Specialist in Infectious Diseases at the University of Buenos Aires. He has a Master in Comprehensive Management of HIV/AIDS and is Doctor of Medicine at University of Barcelona. He is President of the Argentine Society of Infectology and of the XVI National Congress of Infectology.

Cécile Tremblay (Canada), Medical microbiologist specialist in an infectious diseases graduated at the Montreal University. She is Chair on Translational HIV Research and full professor in the Department of Microbiology, Immunology, and Infectious Diseases at Montreal University. She is the Director of the AIDS-Infectious Diseases Network supported by the Quebec Research Fund's in Health.

Jorge Zirulnik (Argentina), Staff psychiatrist of the HIV and Infectology Unit at the Fernández Hospital in Buenos Aires. Coordinator of Fundación PROSAM's Psychopathology of Immunodeficiency Team. Member of Argentine Psychiatrists Association and the Organization of AIDS Psychiatrists. Consultation-Liaison psychiatrist at the Francisco Muñiz Infectology Hospital in Buenos Aires.

This activity is possible thanks to an unrestricted grant from

